The coastal village of Inverkip in the Inverclyde region off the west coast of Scotland lies approximately 5 miles south of Gourock and 9 miles north of Largs. Inverkip has a population of over 3,300 residents and serves as a commuter settlement to Greenock (6 miles) and Glasgow (32 miles), accessed via the A78 and M8 road routes. Glasgow Airport (23 miles) is a short drive east and Inverkip railway station has regular services to Wemyss Bay and Glasgow via Paisley.

Kip Park occupies a prominent position off the busy A78 road route, a short distance north of Kip Marina, widely considered to be Scotland’s premier marina having over 600 berths.

The recently constructed Inverkip Community Centre neighbours the property with new build residential properties proposed on adjoining sites.

Kip Park is a detached; two storey building constructed in 2003 and consisting of four ground floor commercial units and a first floor commercial unit with self-contained access covering the floor plate of the building. There are 38 car spaces on site.
